(of Frank's previous book)'It is bound to become a classic' James d'Angelo'The only book that I will recommend on the subject' Mitch Nur, of Frank's first book'The book is a triumph' Alain Presencer, of Frank's first book

Frank came to singing bowls in 1970 or 71 while working as a percussionist with famous names of the day from the world of popular music. Mitch Nur, another authority from that period, says that Frank's first book, Himalayan Sound Revelations, is the only one he would recommend, such is Frank's prestige within this special world. Frank has a huge number of recordings to his credit and a long list of public appearances - but above all he brings to his subject the total dedication of the master, and an immersion in Buddhism and esotericism
