Primo Prosecco: 40 Sparkling Wine Cocktails — Guaranteed To Put The Fizz In Your Flute!

Synopsis

Over the last five years Prosecco's popularity has risen like bubbles in a glass. An Italian sparkling wine that is easy to drink and hugely popular at parties. Fruitier and lighter than its French counterpart Champagne, Prosecco is delicious when drunk on its own, but fizzes to life with a splash of color and a little imaginative blending. Due to its notes of vanilla, tropical fruits and honeycomb it combines perfectly with a variety of spirits, fruits, liqueurs, and botanicals to make the perfect sparkling tipple. Our sparkling wine combinations will show you how to mix glittering, glamorous cocktails including: Lemon and Lavender Fizz Prosecco and Whisky Julep Sweet Fig and Raspberry Primo Prosecco is divided into three exciting sections including Botanicals, Classics with a Twist, and Fruit. Alla tua salute!

Customer Reviews

There are many conflicting theories surrounding the history of Prosecco. The most popular stretches way back to the Roman Empire where ancient records trace the prosecco grapes to the Pucino wine of ancient Rome. I learned many things about Prosecco in this book. It provides detailed introduction on Prosecco. There are some recipes also. All the looking great. I must try all. Thanks to the author.

I received this book and we instantly started to flip though and mark recipes that we want to make! It's well written and full color with easy to follow steps. The recipes are for foods that the average person would really want to make. I highly suggest this book to all.
