AN ENCHANTING TALE...LOVELY

Ms. Dodge Lujan wrote this book in 1935, from her home in the Taos valley. She spoke from the heart, describing everything around her, from the beautiful Sacred Mountain outside her bedroom to the geraniums wintering in her windows. You are there with her, especially if you've had the good fortune to experience New Mexico in person. Mabel had an enthusiasm for her life, a fresh perspective that touched me deeply. She moved in quite a famous circle of artists, many of whom she introduced to the area. She referred to them on a first name basis, so it was a little difficult to understand who these people were, but fun, too, as I tried to match "Georgia" or "Freida" with a legend. I highly recommend this book; it's a perfect snowy afternoon read. Make sure you curl up on your sofa and have a Kitty or a Pooch at your feet - and don't forget a marvelous cup of coffee!
