52 Lessons I Learned About Life From Playing Solitaire: Weekly Inspirations

Synopsis

About the Book After her divorce, Elizabeth played a lot of solitaire (she wasn't into Halo). As she began to develop tactics she realized that these tactics could be applied to every day life. She began to make note of these and this book of weekly inspirations was born. She now wants to share those weekly inspirations with you (and when the year is over, go back to page one and start again -- these once-a-week gems of wisdom will mean something fresh to you year after year.) She also wants to let you know that you are not alone when you are playing Solitaire, and that "you'll never know what's going to happen unless you play the game"Ã¢Â¿Â ! About the Author Elizabeth Bracken Rand was born in England, and spent her childhood hopping between England, Australia and California. After university she moved to Washington State and has been there since. She has a daughter who is a film maker and two sons at home. Besides being a writer, she has also worked as an architectural lighting designer, a theatrical lighting designer, and as a math and science teacher. She enjoys camping with family and friends, mountain sports, and traveling. She owns a rental cabin in Leavenworth, WA. She has the following books published: "Receiving" under the pseudonym Robin Wade, in England. ISBN- 10: 1869822714, ISBN- 13: 978-1869822712
