Customer Reviews

I just returned from Nicaragua yesterday after a short, 6-day visit. I wish this book would have been more helpful. It is very general in nature. Most of the book discussed hotels and restaurants rather than points of interest, beaches, or the characteristics of the many towns and villages in S/W Nicaragua. It was better than nothing...but not a lot better.

Everything from a reminder not to throw toilet paper down the toilets to what to expect in Granada's central park. This guide was very helpful.
