Thoughts....Another good read where we see the Assistant District Attorney Asia Reed is still at her job 'fighting a losing battle in the faith department.' Now why is that...not being married at almost forty and also with no little ones. Has Asia's life career taken over her life? Will she find that someone that is just for her. Well, as her life goes on for some reason Asia receives a phone call from a former boyfriend who wanted to share something with her. Are things looking up for her? Well, not so fast for in this read Asia will have another case soon before her where she will have to come out front and center to get all the details out to bring the one guilty to justice. Who is this new detective that is now working with Asia? How will these two work together and will they be able to bring this killer to justice? With all of Asia's brassiness "Will Asia's persistence put her in the path of a killer?" To get all of these answers and so much more answered you will have to pick up this good Christian, mystery-thriller with suspense to see how well this author brings this well written story told so well to the readers. Thank you to the author for a early read and my providing my honest opinion of the novel "Relentless Heart."
