Customer Reviews

I bought this after reading the reviews on several Chihuly books, and this was definitely the right choice. It's a very large coffee table book with beautiful photos of Chihuly's creations placed in various gardens and natural settings. The text isn't much to write home about, but the reason you want this is for the luxurious photos. I usually don't gush when writing reviews, but this one really is a keeper.

This is a cool book of his artwork as presented in outdoor and garden settings. Perfect for picking up just to glance at or to sit and read and get lost in a world of beautiful glass.

As I have now realized there are two books with the same title. The photography in this edition is of very poor quality.. Dark, difficult to truly appreciate what should be distinct, captivating form and colors of glass art. Very disappointing. Would return if not for the fact it was meant to be a special gift.

Great book

If you are a Chihuly fan you will love this book. It showcases some of his work. I never tire of looking at it and introducing others to his work.

My friend and I love Chihuly's art. We have seen his exhibit in San Francisco and Seattle. She loved the gift.

The pictures of his work in this book are amazing- you can hate to read and love this book- he is a remarkable artist and these magnificent pictures will have anyone looking for a long time. Perfect size and would make a fabulous gift!

Beautiful book, pictures. Good pictures of how he works.
