Customer Reviews

I discovered 'Heaven Forbid' through it's quasi-sequel 'My Gal the Zombie'. What I found was a setting and style so very different, but so enjoyable. Dan wears his religion on his sleeve in 'Heaven Forbid', but is full of love, respect, and no small about of humorous self-awareness!

One of things I like about "Heaven Forbid" is that you don't have to be Christian to like it. The story lines are funny and can be relatable to those of us that didn't grow up in the church. The comics that deal with religion are not heavy with Bible text. Reading Heaven Forbid makes you feel like you are having a conversation with a close friend. Connor's black and white artwork is reminiscent of Bryan Lee O' Malley with his own style being noticeable.
