Carolyn Denham and Roderick Field, aka Merchant & Mills, produce a range of patterns and ready-to-make kits and superb notions in utilitarian packaging. Carolyn has a degree in fashion and spent several years doing interior design. Roderick is a photographer and writer with works in the National Portrait Gallery. Merchant & Mills products are stocked by the Design Museum, Liberty, the Victoria and Albert Museum, and Selvedge, as well as independent retailers all over the UK and selected outlets in France, Japan, and the US.

Terrific book for a beginner. I have other beginner books, but they seem to assume prior knowledge. This one is well-written, a pleasure to read, and assumes you are starting with no prior knowledge. I admit that I have some, but this fills in some gaps in it.

Awesome book with concise yet detailed enough instruction for any enthusiastic learner to begin sewing. I purchased this book for my 7 year old Granddaughter and would highly recommend this for anyone wanting basic invaluable knowledge.

it is as I expected , neat, small format, good pictures, nice style for a beginner sewing book- it didn't knock my socks off but, it is direct and to the point like the other book I have from them and it feels like quality.

its merchant& mills so of course its very good-full of info==basic skills

What's not to love about a handy little book by Merchant & Mills ... I love their designs ... the esthetic ... all of it ... if only they were not across the pond ... I think I would visit them often! A little bit like sitting next to them!

My favorite sewing book. I own a sewing school and recommend to all my students.

This was a gift for a 14 year old who wants to be a fashion designer.

Very simple and easy to follow directions. The book is a great handbook that fits in my sewing basket. I love this little book.
