Cruising Malaysian Borneo

Synopsis

Cruising Malaysian Borneo is a comprehensive guide for all yachts and other vessels traveling through Sabah and Sarawak, the Malaysian states of Borneo, and Brunei. It provides a vast amount of information about anchorages, towns, rivers and the coastlines. The book is a result of the authors' extensive cruising through these waters from 2010 to 2016. They have tried to include all information that cruising folk would like to know about a potential cruising ground, including weather, safety aspects, local festivals, and services and suppliers in the main towns of Sabah and Sarawak. They have also listed the details of over a hundred anchorages in this area that they have personally used. Borneo is centrally positioned in South East Asia, situated between the Philippines, Indonesia, the Malaysian Peninsula and Singapore. Its location makes it an obvious choice for cruising folk traversing between these countries. However, Malaysian Borneo itself has much to offer, with its many comfortable anchorages, unique fauna and flora, diverse geography and the convenience of its modern cities.

Customer Reviews

it is very nice to start a book with a description of the place and the weather and the position of where it is. And most important for sailors or cruising people. Unfortunately the so-called horse latitudes are nowhere near the Malaysian part of Borneo.
