Letters Of Gilbert Little Stark: Travels In Japan, China, Mongolia, Formosa, Canton, Java, Malaysia, Burma, And India

Synopsis

In 1907 the young Gilbert Little Stark embarked from Seattle on a tour of Asia by sea. Sailing up the Canadian west coast and Alaska, Stark's ship crossed the Northern Pacific near the Aleutian Islands before heading down Kamchatka to the places he had come to see. His letters are a fascinating record of the times, and the lives of travelers in this bygone era. He offers reports from much of Asia, from Japan in the far northeast to India in the south. Stark died before the completion of his voyage, at the age of 22. His letters were privately published in the same year, 1908.
