"The Undertaker encyclopedia." â Forbes.com

A graduate of Fairfield University, Kevin Sullivan began his sports-entertainment career in 1998 when he accepted a position within WWE. Over the course of the next decade, he played an integral role in WWE.com's content creation process, most recently as the site's Content Director. He also served as managing editor of WWE's Raw Magazine. Sullivan left WWE on a full-time basis in 2008, but continues to work closely with the company's publishing department. His first book, the WWE Encyclopedia, became an instant hit and peaked at No. 8 on the New York Times best sellers list. From there, Sullivan teamed with Simon & Schuster to put out The WWE Championship: A Look Back at the Rich History of the WWE Championship. The 320-page narrative tracks wrestling's most prestigious prize from its first days in 1963 all the way up to today.

Sullivan also wrote the New York Times best-selling WWE 50 book and co-authored the second edition of the best-selling WWE Encyclopedia. Additionally, Sullivan has penned seven children's books for WWE, including biographies on Undertaker, John Cena, and Big Show. Follow Sullivan on Twitter: @SullivanBooks what can I say, Being a WWE fan for over 30 years I have read all the WWE books ever published. By far DK publishes the BEST WWE books I have ever seen! just spent a few hours reading Undertaker: 25 Years of Destruction and once again this book is top notch! A truly great tribute to one of the greatest characters of all time, it's a honor to own this fine book! My highest recommendation!

I purchased this as a gift. As a fan myself I was I am in awe at how amazing this book is. If you are an Undertaker fan or know someone that is get this book!

The Undertaker is my absolute favorite Wwe superstar so when I saw this I just had to have it lol. This book is awesome, it covers the Undertaker's career from 1990 to present time. There's lots of fantastic photos and facts (many of which I didn't know) Also It arrived in great time, If you are a fan of the Deadman you will love this! I'm am extremely happy with this purchase and definitely recommend it!!

Imagine the WWE Encyclopedia book and you are looking at a similar layout. However, This book is dedicated to the entire career of the Undertaker. It's a great book and really goes into a lot of detail into many aspects of his career. I wish they'd do it for a couple of other superstars as well.

Great book that tells the history of the Undertaker.

A must have book. One of the best WWE/DK has done. If you call yourself an Undertaker fan, you have to have this book. The pictures are amazing. Not only that, you can just actually read the book and get something refreshed or just never knew about the history of the Undertaker. Great job WWE.

Finally WWE made a special book for The Deadman 25 Years of Destruction. When it comes to The Undertaker he has it all now, action figures, DVDs, magazines & finally the book, happy to buy this book.Worth it

My fiance is a huge wrestling fan and this book was his valentine's gift from me. I like that the book has alot of pictures from the undertaker's career but his early days are barely covered.
