In teaching the Old Testament, it is import to remind student that the cross and resurrection of Jesus reflect God's forgiveness and redemption in both directions, past and future, the Old Testament and the New Testament. Every lesson contains the message of the promised Messiah. Lessons On The Old Testament During Old Testament times, God physically communicated with his people by inspiring chosen individuals like Moses, and Joshua, and the Prophets to write down what he had to say. His message was clear: he wanted a relationship with his creation. God demonstrated his faithful love even though his creation consistently chose to disobey. He also demonstrated his righteous judgment and his plan of salvation through the promised Messiah. -Take Your Class On A Caravan! -Stamp Your Passport As You Visit 16 Sites -Discover Artifacts At Each Site -Learn a Bible Language -Learn About Bible Maps -Create A Bible Lands Museum -Spend Bible Bucks At The Museum Shop!
