Customer Reviews

This map is dated 2009 (both for printing and data), but doesn't include everything that was there in 2009. Not even all the casinos along the Strip are shown - you won't find Palazzo, Encore, Aria, Vdara. Instead you'll see Stardust that was imploded in 2007 (2 years before the publication of the map). The main drawback is that it covers North Las Vegas and Las Vegas only down to McCarran Airport. Plus a lot of areas in the Western Vegas are not covered. If you were in Las Vegas you would know that vast residential and commercial areas are to the west of the Strip (and only some are shown here) and south of the airport (none shown in this map). The cover boasts that the map covers Henderson, but in fact only an insignificant northern tip of Henderson is shown. I have a 2001 Las Vegas map from Rand McNally that shows more than this 2009 American Map map, yet even more was added in 10 years. Sadly you won't find it in this map, even though its design is pleasing. I understand that everybody has a GPS now. But since maps are still published they should be good to sell. This one is not.
