Customer Reviews

a complete travel guide for Rio de Janeiro

With all due respect to the other reviewer, this isn't a "map." You can purchase street maps for Rio. Just as it says on the cover, this is a "mapguide" covering "the city in section-by-section maps." What's great about the small book (perfect for your backpack) are the fold-out maps which give you a sense of where the different attractions are located in that section of the city. There are also lots of great pictures (although small) and write-ups on many of the most interesting places to see. The mini-reviews also include addresses, phone numbers, hours of operation and typical costs. There is also a section in the back which shows the Metro line (which you need to pay heed to if you're heading to Maracana) and info on airports, buses (check out the surfbus!), sealinks, taxis and car rentals. Also lots of hotel, hostel and guest house (posada) recommendations along with pricing info. This is a tremendous resource for your stay in Rio. But, it shouldn't be your only map or your only guidebook. The price is right. So bring it along and enjoy the world's most beautiful city. Boa viagem!

The maps are not detailed enough to get you where you want to go.
