Dean Anderson is a very funny guy! It happens that I bought the book for my kids because I knew Dean back at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School. Back in school Dean was cool!! Sorry. Let me recommend this book to you on the basis that my children thought it was great! The author has a love for God, life and humor and that comes out in the pages of Full Metal Trenchcoat. As a Southern Baptist Pastor I want my children to enjoy life, be protected and learn good theology. Dean Anderson's books are a fit for my family.

My eight year old loves this series. He also likes A to Z Mysteries, Boxcar Children, and the Action Bible so if your kid likes any of those, this series is a great bet. I like how it goes through related topics, such as this one, which focuses on the Armor of God. Others in the series focus on the 10 Commandments, fruits of the spirit, parables of Jesus, Wisdom of Solomen, and so on. It's a great fun read and the chapters are a perfect size for a bedtime story with a purpose!

I picked up a copy of this during the Sonoma County Book Festival. Dean, the author, was presenting a story there and he endorsed this copy over to my daughters (they were very excited - their first autographed book). My 9-year-old picked it up and didn't put it down until she was done later that afternoon. Highly recommended the book and other works from this creative and quick-witted author.

The mysteries in this book are great, and not only that, they are packed with truth and humor. I recommend the "Bill the Warhog" series to parents looking for good books to read to their children, as well as, to independent elementary school to early middle school readers. They're simply fabulous! If that isn't good enough, every new book has a bonus, like a compass or a whistle, attached.

Bill the Warhog is very funny. He is a tough negotiator. (Read the book and you'll see what I mean) In this book he provides good lessons about the armor of God that Paul wrote about in the New Testament.
