Customer Reviews

this is a lovely book - full of very interesting information about many areas around Shopshire - Brother Cadfael country. the pictures alone make it worth the cost, but it is much more. Just take your time reading it and soaking in the pictures. No need to try and rush through it. Enjoy !!!

If you are a history fad doubtless you will love this book. I found the history and information fasinating (when I could keep my eyes open) the images were wonderfull and I feel better for having passed the half way point before putting it down to finish "later". I am interested in Wales and I am interested in historic buildings esp like this- but for some reason I was not drawn in- perhaps you will be- it is well written and structured- I just do not have the fortitude to keep refefencing all the names.
